

The Home Office Helper

Volume 1, Issue 28, July, 2006

Build a Business Plan for Your eBay Business!

Planning to sell your products and services on eBay? Then you'll need a business plan to make sure that your idea will fly, and that banks or other investors will help you get the capital you'll need to make your idea go. And to build that business plan, why not one designed for eBay-based businesses?

More Details

Hot Hardware!

A cordless phone system that includes video and cellular integration? It's here from Panasonic. The Multi-Talk V system can accommodate two phone lines, video and much, much more. Find out more below.

Multi Talk V systems

More Details

The FrontPage 2003 Bible

Building a your new web site in Microsoft FrontPage 2003? Then an investment in this reference book will save you a ton of time and frustration! Check out why we every FrontPage user should own one!

More Details

Tech Spotlight

Your system utility software tells you that you have errors in your Windows Registry...WHAT? Find out what the Windows Registry is, what it does and why it's important to the operation of your system.

More Details

Small System Delight?

Tired of lugging around an eight pound notebook? Then check out Sony's new UX series Micro PCs. Weighing in at just 1.2 lbs. (with standard battery), this light weight delight may be the answer to your back's prayers.

More Details

Hot Finds!

If space is an issue in your home office, then WinBook's Jiv Mini PC, our Hot Find for July is just what you've been looking for. Based on Intel's new Core Duo Processor, the system has a ton of capability, yet is small in size (9.05x7.77x1.65") and weight (.59 lbs.).

More Details

To remove your name from our mailing list, please click here.

Questions or comments? E-mail us at dmielke@homeofficereports.com or call 972-529-9719.

<http://www.homeofficereports.com>